

Academic Warning

Academic Warning

Students will be considered to be officially on warning when a statement to that effect has been issued from the Dean's office noting that there is some indication that the student is experiencing difficulty in maintaining the academic standards necessary for graduation. Such warning will usually include an offer of academic counseling.